Executive Director's Message

As the days grow longer and the first signs of spring appear, we are reminded of the beauty of renewal, hope, and new beginnings. Spring invites us to reflect on growth—both in nature and within our community.

At our organization, renewal is something we witness every day. Each moment of learning, each new friendship, and every achievement—big or small—represents growth for the adults we proudly support. Their resilience, creativity, and determination continue to inspire all of us. Through meaningful programs, opportunities for independence, and a caring community, we strive to ensure that every individual can flourish and reach their fullest potential.

This season also brings the celebration of Passover, a time that reminds us of the importance of freedom, dignity, and community. The story of Passover speaks to the strength of people coming together, supporting one another, and believing in a future filled with possibility. These values are deeply connected to our mission and vision.

As we enter this season of renewal, I want to thank our dedicated staff, volunteers, families, and supporters. Your commitment helps create a community where everyone is valued, included, and empowered.

May this spring bring continued growth, hope, and opportunity for all.

Wishing you and your families a meaningful Passover and a wonderful spring season.

Warm regards,
Chris Barone
Executive Director

S.S. is looking forward to spring this year and was enjoying a couple of really sunny days.

C.S. and W.N.P. went grocery shopping and were a great help.

D.D. and his staff went to a Valentine's Day party. They both had a super time. At the party, there were delicious snacks and cold beverages to be had. And D.D. had the chance to celebrate with friends that he has met while going to his various programs in the community.

Chag Pesach Sameach!

We hope you have a Kosher and Joyous Passover.

May your holiday be filled with freedom, family, meaningful Seders, good health, and delicious, festive food.
